

```
1  create table Departments(
2      DepartmentID int primary key,
3      DepartmentName Varchar(100)
4  );
5
6  create table Employees(
7      EmployeeID int primary key,
8      FirstName Varchar(50),
9      LastName Varchar(50),
10     DepartmentID int foreign key references Departments(DepartmentID),
11     Salary Decimal(10,2),
12     JoinDate DATE
13 );
14
15 Insert into Departments(DepartmentID,DepartmentName) values (1,'HR'),
    (2,'Finance'),(3,'IT'),(4,'Marketing');
16
17 Insert into Employees
    (EmployeeID,FirstName,LastName,DepartmentID,Salary,JoinDate)
18 values(1,'John','Doe',1,5000.00,'2020-01-15'),
19     (2,'Jane','Smith',2,6000.00,'2019-03-22'),
20     (3,'Michael','Johnson',3,7000.00,'2018-07-30'),
21     (4,'Emily','Davis',4,5500.00,'2021-11-05');
22
23 GO
24
25 CREATE PROCEDURE sp_GetEmployeeCountByDepartment
26     @DepartmentID INT
27 AS
28 BEGIN
29     SELECT
30         DepartmentID,
31         COUNT(*) AS TotalEmployees
32     FROM Employees
33     WHERE DepartmentID = @DepartmentID
34     GROUP BY DepartmentID;
35 END;
36
37 GO
38
39 drop procedure if exists sp_GetEmployeeCountByDepartment;
40
41 EXEC sp_GetEmployeeCountByDepartment
42     @DepartmentID = 3;
43
```